What does that wisp-y lit-tle brat have that you don’t have dou-ble? She can’t hold a can-dle to the beau-ty of your smile. How a-bout a pulse? O-ver-rat-ed by a mile. O-ver-val-ued. O-ver-blown. If he on-ly knew the you that we know. And that sil-ly lit-tle crea-ture isn’t wear-ing his ring. And she doesn’t play pi-an-o. Or dance... or sing. No she only he could see how spe-cial you can be. If he on-ly knew the you that we know.

If I touch a burn-ing can-dle, I can feel no pain. If you cut me with a knife it's still the same. And I know her heart is beat-ing, and I know that I am dead. Yet the pain here that I feel, try and tell me it's not real, and it seems that I still have a tear to shed.

If I touch a burning candle I can feel no pain. In the ice or in the sun it's all the same. Yet I feel my heart is ache-ing. Though it doesn't beat, it's break-ing. And the pain here that I feel, try and tell me it's not real. I know that I am dead, yet it seems that I still have some tears to shed.
